HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT IT?

A very eminent thinker has said that: "We are in the greatest revolution of all human history". If that be true, I am thinking, are we prepared to cope with the tremendous issues facing us during such a revolution?

Every thinking individual knows full well that it requires a tremendous amount of courage and spiritual power to hold your head in time of great strain and stress. Do we as a people have the faith and love that we need to meet this revolutionary period into which we have been plunged?

Surely these are times when every sane thinking person should be making every effort possible to prepare himself individually for his place in the ranks with his fellowmen to meet the issues of this day. From every direction we are hearing the cry, we need more Christianity for these times. There is little hope for a real revival of better times unless it is based upon a Christian foundation.
May we strive to prepare ourselves by putting forth the effort and the selfi-ness that are necessary to receive God's spirit and grace into our lives.

The Church has been placed in this community for that very purpose, to help every person into fellowship with the living Christ. Expose yourself to this dynamic, take the trouble to go to Church, it will do these good.
You are invited to attend the Men's down-town Bible Class in the old Bless building at ten o'clock, Sunday morning.

A welcome awaits you also at the church for Christian fellowship in the Sunday School. Also at the eleven o'clock hour and evening service.
When God made man he made him with a dual nature. Do not grow lopsided, give your spiritual nature a chance to grow and develop along with your physical nature. Go to church.

P. E. LANCASTER.

MARRIED.

A wedding of interest to a host of friends of both parties here and in Sabinal took place in the twilight hour of Thanksgiving Day, when Miss Bee Gibson of Sabinal became the bride of Mr. Raymond A. Martin of Hondo, at the Sabinal Methodist church with Rev. G. G. Mitchell, pastor of the church, performing the sacred rites. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gibson of Sabinal and the groom is a son of Mrs. Callie Bendele of this place.

The church, beautifully decorated with pot plants, fern and seasonal flowers, was a lovely setting for the impressive ceremony.

The bridal party entered to the soft music of a wedding march played by Miss Dorothy Eleanor Moore.
The attendants were Miss Mary Ethel Corzine of Sabinal, bridesmaid, and Mr. Thomas Taylor of Hondo, best man.

The bride was attractively attired in a blue ensemble and carried a bou-quet of Sweetheart roses and fern.
Miss Corzine was gown in green and also carried a bouquet of the rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Martin left for a brief honeymoon in San Antonio.
Later they spent several days with relatives in Hondo, and left Thursday for Lytle where they are employed by the Del Rio-Winter Garden Telephone Co.

Those attending the wedding from Hondo were Mrs. Callie Bendele, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bulgerin, Mr. and Mrs.
Joe Burgin, Misses Lilly Allen and Amelia Bendele, and Mr. Thomas Taylor.

This paper joins with the many friends of the happy pair in extending congratulations and best wishes.

vive. They are George and Albert Neumann, Mrs. Edna Faseler, Mrs.
Emma Wiemers, Victor and Sam Neumann. Mrs. Neumann died Dec.
28, 1916.

Mr. Neumann died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wiemers, near Yancey, Nov. 23, 1932, being at the time of his death, 82 years, 1 month and 4 days old. When young he was

Mr. Neumann grew to manhood and spent all his active years in Medina County, taking an active interest in public affairs and the duties of a good citizen. He served the people of his precinct as their County

IN MEMORIAM:

Mrs. C. B. Noonan

(The following poem by Helen Hunt Jackson was one of Mrs. Cornelia Bowen Noonan's favorites. It is reprinted here in tribute to Mrs.
Noonan who with other members of her family was long active in various parishes of San Antonio, among them San Fernando, St. Mary's, St. Patrick's and St. Gerard's. Mrs. Noonan's death occurred on November 11.)

MY SENTIMENTS.

Dear hearts whose love has been so sweet to know That I am looking backward as I go—Am lingering while I haste and in this rain
Of tears of joy, am mingling tears of pain;
Do not adorn with costly shrub or tree Or flower the little grave which shelters me.
Let the wild wind-sown seeds grow up unharmed,
And back and forth all summer un-alarmed
Let all the tiny, busy creatures creep;
Let the sweet grass its last year's tangle keep;
And when, remembering me, you come some day
And stand there, speak no praise, but only say:
"How she loved us! It was for that she was so dear!"
These are the only words that I shall smile to hear.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT.

The Commissioners Court convened for the regular November term on November 14th, with all members present. The general election returns were canvassed by the court and the result declared. The Court then recessed until Nov. 21st.

All members were again present on reconvening after the recess at 2 P. M. Nov. 21st. Quarterly reports were examined and approved, as was the treasurer's report. Warrants were canceled and bills approved.

It was ordered that the sum of $10. less $1.50 commission retained by the officers in case No. 166, J. P. Court No. 8, LaCoste, in which $10.00 was remitted the County by mistake as in violation of the game laws such fine must be remitted to the State, be paid the State by the County Treasurer by refund warrant.

The Court decided that the amounts of bond to be given by county and precinct officers for the new term beginning Jan. 1, 1933, would be the same as required of them for the term just closing.

Three thousand dollars was ordered transferred from the Special Fund to the General Fund and the County Treasurer was authorized to place so much out of the $3000 as may be necessary to the minor funds which are financed out of the General Fund as to place them out of the red.

Final designations for Light Testing Stations were made and bonds approved as follows: Preston Gaines, Hondo; L. C. Tschirhart, Hondo; and Etter's Garage, Castroville.

The payment of the election officers for the general election was ordered and also the payment of rent for places where elections were held as follows: Rothe and Koch, $5.00; Herman Sons, Dunlap, $3.00; Emil Bendele, $3.00; Ben de Gredt, $3.00.

by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Windrow on pointments successfully expressed the holiday season.

members to Mrs. Robert Kollman and to Mr. George Windrow, and for the guests to Mrs. Vernon Carr and to Dr. John Henry Meyer.

The hostess served tempting refreshments of chicken andwiches, to a delightful conclusion.

NEW FOUNTAIN W. M. S.

A most enjoyable meeting of the New Fountain Women's Missionary Society took place in the home of Mrs. F. Stiegler on Wednesday afternoon.

The attendance was gratifying and an interesting program was rendered.

body Today". Mrs. L. H. Haysen led the Missionary topic, "Finding God in Jesus Christ". Mrs. J. E. Muennink gave a poem, "Our Christ", and Mrs. D. W. Wiemers told of "Women's Work in China". Mrs. F.
Muenink reported on "Work of the Women's Missionary Society in China". Mrs. F. Stiegler reported the Missionary News. The members of our Society feel encouraged and were happy to receive Mrs. Dora

QUIHI NOTES.

If you love me, keep my commandments. St. John 14:15.

A terse and plain statement. And how comprehensive! The whole ethics of Christianity in a nutshell. Dogma and confessions, constitutions and guides, magnificent church buildings and appropriate services plus ceremonies, all serve a high purpose and often are expressive of such love. A well regulated church activity from the Sunday school to the regular Sunday attendance, including all the organized efforts by old and young members, pathetic hymns, eloquent rhetoric, prayer and devotion, collective offerings and individual magnificent sacrifices, to be sure, they all bear every semblance and characteristic of this love. Without it, they'd fall under St. Paul's censure: sounding brass, tinkling cymbal. Still, in the words above, the Lord designates a deeper test, perennial, daily, within the scope and grasp of every one: keep my commandments. Whatever you plan or do for the sake of, and prompted by, His love, shows to what degree you love Him. Lord, give us such love!

Surrounded by many friends and acquaintances on November 23, 1932, the solemn wedding ceremony was performed at the Quihi Bethlehem Lutheran church for Mr. Wesley Heyen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heyen, and Miss Emma Brucks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Brucks. Miss Alma Grell played the wedding march while the bridal couple, accompanied by Mr. Herbert Brucks and Miss Della Saathoff, the witnesses of this festive occasion, approached the altar. A few happy hours were spent at the home of the bride with the nearest relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Heyen, both of this community, will make their home, at least temporarily, with Mr. Louis Heyen. We wish them every blessing from above, and their many friends, I know, will join us.

A rather large assembly of worshippers attended the Thanksgiving Day services. The hymns had the true ring of thankfulness—let's hope the season likewise—and the church choir gave very appropriate selections. Indeed, everybody had something to be truly thankful for, despite the national and international lamentations. A few select and really remarkable specimens of this year's crop were exhibited at the altar.
Thanks to the Lord; thanks all around.

The social of, and for, the members of the choir was quite an affair.
A half hundred of happy faces adorned the evening. A number of friends of course, helped in making up this number. "Bunco" was the feature.
First prizes went to Mr. Edwin Grell and Mrs. Otto Lindburg; second prizes to Master Hy. Schuehle and Miss Lucille Bohlen; consolation prizes to Mr. Alfred Boehle and Miss Della Hartman, respectively. The others had the hopes and the joyous atmosphere of the evening, plus a tasty repast, served and prepared by an efficient committee, the Misses Eileen Hartmann and Esther Bohlen and the Messrs. Herbert Reitzer and Oscar Grell.

OLD CALIFORNIA ROMANCE LIVES IN ACTION FILM.

"Vanishing Frontier", a story of Old California, starring Johnny Mack Brown, and featuring Evelyn Knapp, ZaSu Pitts, Raymond Hatton and J.
Farrell MacDonald, opens tonight at the Colonial Theatre.

The story is set in the period immediately following California's annexation to the United States, but before the territorial government has been set up. Under command of an unimaginative officer, the United States enforces martial law.

Brown has the role of a Spanish-American who shows his resentment against the military rule by organizing a band of guerrillas to right the wrongs committed by the soldiers.
Like some 18th century Robin Hood, he steals back from the cavalry the money they have taken from the natives, and then restores it to the former owners.

Into the picture comes Miss Knapp, daughter of a general. Brown, deeply in love with her, risks his life to see her. Soon she loves him, too. But there is much thrilling action before the two are finally united. That occurs only after the military government has been replaced by a civil one.

The picture is filled with stirring and breathless incidents. Battles between the guerrillas and the military, escapes from a convict ship, midnight rides through precipitous canyons and many other such sequences contribute to the suspense.

Next week—the four Marx Brothers with Thelma Todd and Florine McKinney in "Horsefeathers".

Slow But Safe

We hear of those who get rich quick, Who strike it rich at one bold lick; But somehow most of those big tales Are told to help put over sales; For all rich men whom we have found Have gained their riches round by round, Have worked and sweat year in year out And never used the short cut route. The HONDO STATE BANK has much to show The safest route is to go slow.

District Manager, T. A. Stevenson of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. was here Wednesday from Eagle Pass. Mr. Stevenson left with us a copy of the Southwestern Telephone News, the company's house organ published at Dallas. The magazine contains much matter of informative nature that would help both the public and the company to read. The old notion that the buyers of service are merely victims to be repeatedly skinned for profits would give way to the feeling that the Company's first concern is to give value received in service for the pay asked could both understand each other better.

Quite a number of men and boys some of whom have been out of employment for months, were put to work Monday on the public roads, parks and other public property by the committee on Federal Unemployment Relief work. The chance to earn something from their labor will afford a great help to many who otherwise could earn nothing, and should afford at least a temporary stimulus to business.

NO better preparation can be found for the man who works all day in a noisy office, than a breakfast that provides a ration of jam or marmalade. Science has discovered that sweet foods offset the nervous and physical fatigue caused by noise.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

In addition to increasing our postal rates on mailing our papers about 25 per cent, the Hoover scheme for relieving the depression compels the post office to charge us two cents for every notice of change in address it delivers to us. You can send us a notice on a 1c postal card and not notice it, but a 2c charge on us will soon aggregate a burdensome sum to us, so we beg of you to not leave it to the post office to notify us of change of address but do so yourself as soon as a change is made. Postmasters are asked to send no notice until several undelivered papers are accumulated and then only one. Thanking you in advance, we are,

GET RID OF RATS AND MICE.

By L. A. Hawkins
Agricultural Extension Department International Harvester Company.

The rat is man's most relentless foe. It is more destructive to property than all the great conflagrations of history; more destructive to human life than all the world's wars.

It is the apostle of pestilence, the creator of famine, the messenger of death. It fattens off the health and wealth and labor of the human race. With silent and venomous persistence, it follows mankind from the cradle to the grave, attacking the infant in its sleep, the helpless sick on the bed of pain, the aged and infirm.

It devours with ravenous greed every nature of food for man or beast. It destroys our poultry, annoys and injures our domestic animals, devastates our growing grain, destroys our harvest. It infests our ships, sets fire to our homes, carries fatal diseases broadcast through the land.

Destroy Much Property.

And not content to menace man's prosperity, health and welfare all the days of his life, it follows him into the grave to desecrate and mutilate his mortal remains.

Not only do rats and mice destroy food, but they have been known to destroy furniture, bedding, clothing, books, valuable papers, harness and personal property of all kinds. They injure buildings by undermining foundations or causing the early decay of sills and timbers. They kill trees and shrubbery by gnawing off the roots, set fire to buildings by gnawing matches or stripping the insulation from electric wires. Flood buildings with water or gas by gnawing through lead pipes; weaken dams and dikes, causing heavy losses.

In the United States rats and mice each year destroy crops and other property valued at over $200,000,000, according to the Department of Agriculture. Government officials declare it costs $2.00 to keep a rat a year. The farmer who feeds 100 rats suffers an annual loss of $200.

But the loss of property is trivial in comparison to the loss of human lives caused by rats which thrive amid filth and carry pollution with them. Millions of human beings have died of bubonic plague, conveyed to man mainly by the rat flea. Trichinosis among hogs, fatal to human life, is communicated mostly by rats. Promaines, "septic pneumonia", typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria and other diseases are also believed to be caused in many cases by rats.

Rats and mice multiply rapidly, breeding from six to 10 times a year and bringing forth from six to 10 at a litter. It is estimated that the increase from one pair, if undisturbed, will amount to 20,155,000 in three years and 340,370,000,000 in five years.

Perseverance Will Get Rid of Rats.

There is no easy way to get rid of rats but it can be done with intelligent and persistent effort if active co-operation among neighbors is secured.

The homes and breeding places of the rats must be destroyed. They must be starved, killed or driven away. Rat-proof buildings and rat-proof bins and cribs for the storing of grain will do much toward ridding a farm of them.

Outdoor wood piles or any place where rubbish and tin cans are dumped give excellent protection to rats. A general cleaning up of the premises and the entire neighborhood is the first step in a rat campaign.

Keep food away from rats. Have rat-proof garbage cans and keep them covered. Where food is plenty, rats will congregate and remain and it is hard to trap or poison them. Several proprietary rat poisons, of one sort or another, are on the market, some of which are effective. There is always danger in using poison. Red squill is recommended by the Government as an effective remedy against rats and at the same time is not a dangerous material to have around. It "kills rats only" and is known sometimes as "K. R. O."

HOLZHAUS-TSCHIRHART.

A pretty church wedding took place Tuesday morning, November 22nd, 1932 when Miss Alma Tschirhart became the bride of Clarence Holzhaus in St. Louis Church, Rev. Jacob Lenz performing the ceremony and also celebrating a Nuptial High Mass, during which special singing was rendered by the choir, of which the bride is a faithful member.

The altar was tastefully decorated with ferns and white chrysanthemums.

The bridal party entered church in the following order: Miss Ruby Groff and Silvan Tschirhart, Miss Maude Holzhaus and Wilfred Tschirhart, Miss Corrine Tschirhart, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The groom with his best man, Herbert Holzhaus, met the bride in the sanctuary.

The bride was lovely in white satin with wreath and veil, carrying an arm bouquet of white carnations and lace ferns. The bridesmaids and maid of honor were becomingly attired in gowns of satin with fur trimmings: Miss Groff in pink, Miss Holzhaus in green and Miss Tschirhart in peach, each carrying bouquets of pink carnations. The groom and his attendants wore navy blue serge.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tschirhart, while the groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holzhaus.

A reception was tendered the happy couple at the home of the bride's parents.

We extend our congratulations and best wishes to the newly wedded couple.

Work Weary "NERVES"

Do they make you Restless, Cranky, Tired, Sleepless, Dyspeptic, Head-achy? Do they spoil your pleasure and interfere with your work?

Tens of thousands have found a way to get relief from over-worked nerves—a way so simple, so pleasant, so low in cost, that we are constantly receiving letters that say, "If I had only found Effervescent Nervine Tablets sooner." Simon Brandt writes:

"I was very nervous from over-work. I couldn't sleep well, appetite was poor, and I felt weak for a long time."

"Used Dr. Miles' Nervine and now feel fifteen years younger and I am working the same as I did before—fourteen to fifteen hours daily."

"Sorry I did not learn about this wonderful medicine sooner as I had tried everything I could hear of, without results, until Dr. Miles' Nervine put me back on my feet."

When you are nervous, try this—put a Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nervine Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up like sparkling spring water—drink it—enjoy the feeling of calm and relaxation that follows.

Simon Brandt

In Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nervine Tablets a splendid formula for soothing overwrought nerves is combined with bicarbonate of soda and citric acid which tend to correct hyper-acidity—a frequent cause of nervousness.

Effervescent NERVINE TABLETS

WHITE FLOWERING SWEET CLOVER.

(Melilotus Alba)

Inoculate Seed with Nitragin.

Sweet Clover is often spoken of as "One of God's choicest gifts to man."

White Flowering Sweet Clover is a biennial and, as a rule, does not bloom the first year after planting; the growth is much more rapid the second year. With the stimulus of food stored in the roots and the second year growth starting early in the spring of the second season, you are assured a good early pasturage or an abundant hay crop.

Sweet Clover is useful for soil improvement, for hay to be consumed on the farm, for pasturage, and as a honey plant for the bees. For soil improvement it is very valuable to lime and heavy clay and black lands, not only on account of the luxuriance of stems and foliage, but also because the thick roots, in decaying, improve the drainage and texture of the soil.

The first year's growth of this plant should be used for pasturage. The second year's growth can be used for pasturage as early as March—before most summer plants are available—and may be pastured throughout the early summer. To keep the plants from becoming too coarse in their second year and to prolong the grazing season, Sweet Clover pastures should be clipped before the plants bloom freely.

In Texas, this great Clover is especially adapted to the stiff lands, and even clay soils, that are too poor in organic matter to support a thrifty growth of Alfalfa or other clovers and grasses. Such soil will increase greatly in value with each year's growth of Sweet Clover.

Growing Sweet Clover is the best known method of building up worn-out lands. Black lands especially will respond to Sweet Clover where commercial fertilizer fails.

The average production of Sweet Clover will put from $15.30 to $41.40 worth of nitrogen in the land on which it grows, depending on the way the crop is used.

Mr. J. C. Stephens, of the Government Experiment Station at Chillicothe, Texas, has sent us the report, in part, as follows:

Christmas Candies

CHRISTMAS couldn't really seem like Christmas unless you had some home-made candies about the house.

Natural fruit sugars are the most easily digested, and the fruit sugars in Hawaiian pineapple are of a type all ready for human assimilation. So here are a couple of recipes for home-made pineapple candies that are not only delicious but also decorative.

Glazed Pineapple: Boil two cups sugar, one cup water and one-eighth teaspoon cream of tartar, without stirring, to the crack stage, or 300°. Keep hot over hot water while dipping the pineapple. Cut canned pineapple slices in convenient sized wedges for serving, and drain well. Then dip a few at a time in the syrup, and remove to oiled paper to dry. It is most important to have the pineapple well drained, for at least several hours, before using. Otherwise, the juice will prevent the glazing.

Fudge With Fruit

Pineapple Divinity: Cook one-half cup shredded Hawaiian pineapple and three tablespoons sugar to a thick jam, 225°. Mix two cups sugar, one-half cup water and one-eighth teaspoon cream of tartar, and boil to 260°. Just before this temperature is attained, add the pineapple jam, continuing the boiling to the 260° point. Beat one egg white stiff, then add hot syrup very slowly, stirring constantly, and beating till it is stiff and will hold its shape. Add one-fourth cup chopped marsh-mallows, and pour into buttered pans.

A FEW HINTS ON THE CARE OF A WATCH.

It should be wound carefully and regularly each day and at a definite time.

Protect it from unnecessary jolts, jars, knocks or falls.

The case should be kept closed and should be taken to a reliable watchmaker regularly once a year for overhauling and oiling and it should be inspected at least every six months.

It is unwise to open the case unnecessarily to admire the movement. Each time the back is open it gives the dirt a chance to enter.

Your watch is not a plaything for the baby, and it does not improve it to be used as a hammer.

If your watch stops see if you have forgotten to wind it. Use careful gentle pressure on the winding crown at the start in case it is already fully wound. Do not tamper with it or shake it on any account. Take it to a reliable watchmaker if it should unexpectedly stop.

If a good watch will go for a day it should go in the same condition of service for a year.

Stopping, except for want of winding, indicates something amiss with the movement which only a skilled watchmaker can discover and make right.

Less than one percent spoilage from more than 6000 cans filled by Mrs. Ed. Young of Hest in Menard county is reported by Miss Kittie Sue Harrison, home demonstration agent. Included in this canning are 21 beeves and goats Mrs. Young has put up for the public. She attributes her small percentage of lost products to careful sealing and re-flanging of cans. —AAT.

The marriage of Miss Alma Tschirhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tschirhart, to Clarence Holzhaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holzhaus, was celebrated Tuesday, November 22nd, at nine o'clock at a Nuptial High Mass. The bride was preceded to the altar by her bridesmaids, Miss Magdalene Holzhaus and Miss Ruby Graff, and the maid of honor, Miss Corinne Tschirhart. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a very becoming gown of white bridal satin, trimmed with lace. Her long veil of tulle was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and carnations. The bridesmaids wore very attractive gowns, Miss Tschirhart in peach, Miss Graff in pink and Miss Holzhaus in blue green; designed alike, they featured short capes edged with ostrich feathers. They also wore silver caps and carried arm bouquets of fresh carnations. Mr. Herbert Holzhaus was his brother's best man, the groomsmen were Wilfred Tschirhart and Sylvan Tschirhart. Fifty and Fit

A MAN is as old—or as young—as his organs.

At fifty, you can be in your prime.

Why go along with "fairly good health" when you might be enjoying vigor you haven't felt for years?

There's a simple little thing anyone can do to keep the vital organs stimulated, and feel fit all the time. People don't realize how sluggish they've grown until they've tried it. The stimulant that will stir your system to new life is Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. It will make a most amazing difference in many ways.

This famous doctor's prescription is a delicious syrup made with fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. It starts its good work with the first spoonful. That's all you need to drive away the dullness and headache of a bilious spell, and rid the system of that slow poison that saps your strength. It's better than a tonic for tired bowels, and unlike habit-forming laxatives you can take it freely or give it to any child. And it isn't expensive.

Get some syrup pepsin today, and take a little tonight. Don't wait until you're sick to give your system this wonderful help. You can avoid those spells of biliousness or constipation. A spoonful every now and then is better than constant worry about the condition of your bowels, or fear of auto-intoxication as you grow older. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin protects the system. All druggists keep this preparation
